

TATRA SKYMARATHON

ELITE SPECIFICATIONS

ELITE RULES

Official meeting: Elite category runners may be invited to various meetings (official presentation, press conference). If you receive this type of invitation, your presence is mandatory.

Failure to appear for doping control will result in disqualification and disciplinary action.

Competitors undertake to read and accept the regulations, in particular:

- festival program
- routes
- mandatory equipment
- rights to use the image
- appropriate health condition to participate in extreme competitions
- anti-doping regulations
- respect for judges, volunteers, media and organizers
- principles of first aid and mountain ethics

OZNACZANIE W SOCIAL MEDIACH

As part of Elite registration, please share on your social networks, mentioning @tatra_skymarathon on Facebook and Instagram, optionally Tik-Tok, at least one post or video from each group below a total of min. 3x:

- inform that you will take part in the competition
- about your stay in Zakopane or another place 2-10 days before the festival, show others how you are preparing for the start.
- about the result obtained in the competition

A selection of photos taken by our photographers will be made available in the album. These photos may only be used by you, with mention of @tatra_skymarathon and credit to the author/photographer. If you want to use the photo or video for your own commercial use, there is no such problem. However, contact and acceptance of the organizer and author are required.

Any brand or person who wants to shoot a video clip or report using a drone/camera or any other means about the Tatra SkyMarathon must apply to the organization for a license. Please send your inquiry to: radek@malavi.pl - details in the Press Kit tab.

Please comply with the regulations, in case of breaking them or failing to comply, the competition jury and the organizer may impose penalties:

- for offenses on the route, regarding the mandatory equipment of anti-doping control, time penalties or disqualification
- for missing the Elite presentation, press conference, award ceremony, as well as for violating the principles of fair play, the Race Jury and the Organizer (who makes the final decision) may impose penalties, including, among others, the withholding of financial benefits.
